Application Requirements

Academic standing is important, but not the sole factor in determining eligibility for the Award. Extra-curricular activities, leadership, community involvement and the pursuit of personal goals will also be considered. Please answer the following questions on one typed page maximum.

- Describe briefly your career or professional goals.
- Describe your participation in school activities, both academic and extracurricular. Include the years involved, positions held and any achievements.
- Describe community (out of school) activities; for example – part-time jobs, hobbies, clubs, projects. Include the years involved, positions held, and any achievements. Emphasize any volunteer activities over and above the required 40 hours.
- State any other pertinent information that you would like the selection committee to consider.

Your application will include:

- This completed form.
- Your single page in answer to the questions above.
- Photocopied transcript with your name clearly visible for all high school credits earned to date AND your mid-term marks for courses in progress.
- Two signed letters of reference substantiating your school/community achievements.
- Photocopy of the offer from the post-secondary institution you will be attending.

The Janet Manderson Scholarship

For 2022 an additional special scholarship is available to recognize Janet Manderson who was one of the founders and the first president of CFUW Georgetown.

This scholarship is intended for a student with a disability who generally meets the above requirements.
